

News

23.02.11

Morgan Sindall puts its money on Rainbows

Staff and customers at Morgan Sindall's Nottingham office have raised £1,000 for Loughborough-based hospice Rainbows, as part of its tenth anniversary celebrations.

More than 70 guests enjoyed a casino night, complete with blackjack, roulette and a raffle, to mark Morgan Sindall's tenure at Babbington House, The Phoenix Centre.

Nick Seddon, operations manager of Morgan Sindall in Nottingham said: "We've had a very successful ten years here in Nottingham and have completed numerous high profile projects including Nottingham Science Park, Quad Visuals Arts Centre and the Broadway Cinema expansion.

"This event was our way of thanking our staff and clients and giving something back to the local community. The Rainbows hospice offers care for children and young people across the East Midlands and provides a fabulous and valuable service. We're delighted to support their efforts."

Pictured (L-R): Jon Hall (business development director for Morgan Sindall Construction in the North East), John Bradley from Scott Wilson (guest), Nick Seddon (operations manager for Morgan Sindall) and Kate Golding (Rainbows).