

Raising concerns

Your concerns matter. Raise them in confidence.

If you see or hear of someone acting improperly or unethically at work, we want to know about it. If it makes you uncomfortable that's enough reason to raise it with your line manager.

Or if you would rather raise it in confidence, we have a confidential helpline called 'Raising Concerns' that can be contacted at any time, completely anonymously.

Call Expolink on 0800 374199

or email them at morgansindall@expolink.co.uk

If you would like to submit a report via the Expolink website follow the link below and click on the green button to start your report.
